

Wildflower Walk and Picnic

Sunday July 23rd 11.30am

(High tide is at approx.10.30am)

Led by

Paul Nickson & Michael Lunts

£ 3.00 Free to under 16's.

By the Menai Strait, near Fort Belan

Suitable for all the family and those without botanical expertise

We hope to see a fine display of pyramidal orchids close to the fort and look at plants typical of salt marshes and shingle.

Please bring your own picnic and flower guides and a hand-lens if you have them.

After the picnic Michael will offer a little floral entertainment!

If intending to come please contact drpaul.nickson@gmail.com / 01286 872 487 / 07712418321

You will be contacted if changes need to be made because of weather etc.
Everyone is welcome! Join us at the fort

This is a FOBA event in aid of the restoration fund.
